Re: Government Circular, General Administration
Department, No. TRG-1067-T, dated the 26th
September 1967.

The following amendments should be made to the Model Rules
"Qualifying Examination for Promotion to Supervisory Posts" for non-gazetted (Ministerial) staff in the offices of Heads of Departments and offices subordinate to them, contained in Annexure II to the Government Circular of 26th September 1967
referred to above :

(i) The following should be inserted after the first square
bracket in Rule 4 of the said Rules :

"A person who has completed four years of service or more in the post of (here mention the post immediately below the supervisory post) on the date these orders come into force, should pass the examination within three years from the said date."

(ii) The following proviso should be added at the end of Rule
5 of the said Rules :

"Provided that the persons who are officiating in the post of (here mention the supervisory post) for a period of less than two years on the date these rules come into force are not entitled to exemption from passing the examination and shall be required to pass it within three years of the said date. If they fail to do so, they will be reverted. They will then take their place with other unqualified persons."

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

( S. A. VIKAR )

Under Secretary to the Government of Maharashtra, General Administration Department.
